Worthington Chapter OES Scholarship

The Worthington Chapter OES Scholarship was established in 2009 by the members of Worthington Chapter #287, Order of the Eastern Star, to provide financial assistance to its members, or children and grandchildren of chapter members pursuing postsecondary education. Applicants must be members in good standing of Worthington Chapter, or children or grandchildren of members in good standing. Children or grandchildren of deceased members may also apply, if the member was in good standing at the time of death. The award may be used to pursue associate, bachelor's or master's degrees at accredited universities. A committee of not less than three chapter members will select the recipients.

Selection will be based on: (1) academic excellence, (2) commitment to completion of the degree, and (3) financial need.
